

LOVE

by WERONIKA WILANTOWICZ VILLA

LOVE, one word and means so much.

You can love in the subway, in the cinema and in the theater.

Love is a beautiful but confusing feeling, it can confuse your mind and take words away too...

To love is not only to speak but to feel sincerely.

Warmth, bonds that connect very much.

People who want to love and to take care of each other.

Always, forever feel this ...

Something more..

great happiness.
